Consulate General of Bangladesh Toronto, Canada

Press Release

Toronto, 8 March 2021

Bangladesh Consulate General in Toronto celebrated the historic 7th March speech of the Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman with due honour and respect. The first part of the program began by hoisting national flag at Bangladesh House, and the second part at the Consulate General comprised offering flower wreath before the portrait of the Father of the Nation, reading out the messages of the Hon'ble President and Hon'ble Prime Minister, screening documentary on the 7 March speech, screening the full video speech of the Father of the Nation and recitation of poems.

Consul General Nayem Uddin Ahmed in his speech spoke on the significance and immense impact of the clarion call of the Father of the Nation on 7 March for emancipation and independence of the bangalee nation. His call for independence on 7 March united 75 million bangalee to fight against the Pakistani occupation armies for the independence of Bangladesh.

Consul General further mentioned that Bangabandhu's 7 March speech is rightly included in the 'Memory of the World International Register' by UNESCO. This speech is a source of inspiration for the freedom-loving people in the world. Consul General urged that in the same spirit of unity we must strengthen the hands of our Hon. Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina to make Sonar Bangla (developed Bangladesh) by 2041.

The program ended up with a special prayer for the Father of the Nation and his family members, valiant freedom fighters and for the continued development, peace, and progress of Bangladesh.
